The Entomological Sciences Program is pleased to announce that Mr. Tom Burroughs is the new Pesticide Coordinator and will now be answering the DOD Pesticide Hotline. Mr. Burroughs has extensive operational and pesticide use experience and will be available to assist you with any pesticide-related questions you may have. Please feel free to call the Pesticide Hotline, a service that has been in existence since 1976.

We remain dedicated to providing you the quality services that have been synonymous with the Hotline for many years. Some of the information available from the Hotline includes:

Pesticide product and label information
Contingency pesticides
Material Safety Data Sheets
Technical guides
Fact sheets
Federal and state regulatory actions
Pest biology and control
Pest Management Bulletin
